

ICHRIE'S 75th Anniversary Special Issue Celebrating Its Past, Present, & Future

Mahmood Khan, Guest Editor, JHTR Special Issue

Publication Date: Early January 2021

This special issue will be a memorable and historic memento celebrating the 75th year of ICHRIE and is planned to be available for the 2021 Annual ICHRIE's Summer Conference & Marketplace to be held in Washington DC. This issue will be unique since it will have many narratives, anecdotes, reflections, short notes, etc. about the long journey of the ICHRIE members. For this issue, the editors have graciously agreed to have articles of different lengths, with some short stories, incidences, anecdotes, notes as well as longer narrations. The intent is to hear reflections from the past as well as a vision for the future of ICHRIE. This solicitation is all-inclusive to past and present ICHRIE presidents, board members, federations, chapters, partners, members (domestic and international), and hospitality industry professionals. The issue will have different hues of humorous incidences, fun during the conferences, bloopers and blunders, and of course, happy and sad memories. Please consider in being a part of this special issue, which will be not only a valuable reference but also a reminiscence of our past victories and challenges. Ideas based on building our future based on experiences, technological innovations, and development of hospitality and tourism education, are welcomed. We look forward to your contribution!
