

Tenure-Track Faculty Position – Service Operations Management
Cornell SC Johnson College of Business
Cornell University

The SC Johnson College of Business at Cornell University invites applications from qualified individuals for a full-time tenure-track faculty position in our Operations Technology and Information Management (OTIM) Area, with a start date of July 1, 2018. Rank is assistant or associate professor, and salary is commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Responsibilities of the position include: 1) research related to hospitality or service operations management, 2) teaching basic and advanced courses at the undergraduate and graduate level, 3) supervision of doctoral candidates, and 4) service to the Area, School, and College.

The Cornell SC Johnson College of Business (established on July 1, 2016) combines three AACSB-accredited Schools: The Samuel Curtis Johnson Graduate School of Management (Johnson), the Charles H. Dyson School of Applied Economics and Management (Dyson), and the School of Hotel Administration (Hotel School).

The OTIM Area at the Cornell SC Johnson College of Business consists of 44 faculty from across our three Schools.

The intent of this process is to recruit hires for the School of Hotel Administration. The School that best fits the candidate's research, teaching and public engagement interests will ultimately serve as the tenure home. Faculty nonetheless has opportunities to teach across the three Schools' degree programs in order to develop an appealing teaching load.

The School of Hotel Administration at Cornell University, the top-ranked hospitality management program worldwide, enrolls approximately 900 undergraduates and 70 graduate students. Founded in 1922, SHA is home to over 60 full-time resident faculty and over 12,000 alumni worldwide.

Qualifications:

All applicants will have a Ph.D. (defended or ABD) in Management Science/Operations Management or a related field with an interest in applied research related to services and/or hospitality. Seasoned, untenured professors will also be considered.

To be considered, please apply at <https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/9580>. The search committee will begin reviewing applications on November 15th 2017, and will remain open until filled.

The following materials are required:

1. Letter of interest
2. Curriculum vitae
3. Up to three research papers or other representative samples of scholarship

4. Three recommendation letters
5. Evidence of teaching effectiveness

OTIM members will be meeting prospective candidates at both INFORMS and DSI. Please indicate in your letter of interest if you are attending either of these meetings as well as session numbers if speaking at the conference.

This tenure-track position will be based in Ithaca, NY, with potential teaching responsibilities across our campuses in New York City.
