

Tenure Track Position in Strategic Management
Hospitality Tourism and Management
Isenberg School of Management
University of Massachusetts Amherst

The Hospitality and Tourism Management (HTM) Department of the Isenberg School of Management at the University of Massachusetts Amherst invites applications for a tenure track position in Strategic Management related to the Hospitality Industry to begin September 1, 2019. The rank for the position is Assistant or Associate Professor.

Candidates are required to hold a Ph.D. in Hospitality Management or Affiliated field. The position focuses on Strategic Management specifically related to the hospitality industry with emphasis on revenue management, marketing management, or operations and innovation management.

Candidates must have expertise or evident potential in providing quality teaching at both undergraduate and graduate levels. Potential or demonstrated ability to teach in both face-to-face and distance education with considerable work experience is highly desirable. The ideal candidates for the position will have active programs of research with a demonstrated ability for high quality scholarly publications. Evidence of engagement with the business community and industry is desirable. Initial teaching responsibilities will be focused on developing and delivering innovative instruction in strategic management in the hospitality industry.

For more information including minimum qualifications and application instructions, please visit: <http://careers.umass.edu/amherst/en-us/job/495340/tenure-track-position-in-strategic-managementhtm>

The University of Massachusetts Amherst is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer of women, minorities, protected veterans, and individuals with disabilities and encourages applications from these and other protected group members.