Assistant/Associate Hospitality Tenure Track Professor

ReqId#3492
Department: Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism Management
Type of Position: Full-Time Regular

Job Summary:
Responsibilities: The successful candidate will have teaching responsibilities in undergraduate courses in food & beverage management and culinary arts. Teaching areas include principles of food & beverage, safety & sanitation, food & beverage management systems, menu planning, food & beverage information systems, and restaurant operations. Candidates should expect to assist in curriculum development, research, scholarship, and student advisement, and be highly involved in departmental, university, and industry related activities. The standard workload for teaching faculty is 12 hours per term, with a maximum of three (different course) preparations. Teaching may include distance learning and or off campus teaching.

This individual will be expected to provide leadership within the food & beverage segment of the program including but not limited to mentoring student research, developing University-industry partnerships, and developing extended learning opportunities within the field.

Final selection will be based upon a successful interview and background check. All candidates must furnish proof of eligibility to work in the U.S. at the time of employment.

Required Qualifications: Master’s Degree in related discipline required. Experience in teaching food and beverage preparation and management.

Preferred Qualifications: Doctorate preferred. American Culinary Federation certification and/or work experience in food and beverage management highly desirable. ServSafe certification desirable. Ability to teach lab courses and utilize technology. Experience working with diverse populations. Preferred qualifications may be used to further reduce the pool of applicants to those who are most highly qualified.

Posting Date: 2/4/2020

Closing Date: Open Until Filled

Applicants are to apply through https://esu.csod.com/ats/careersite/JobDetails.aspx?site=1&id=3492 and are required to attach a letter of application, curriculum vita, statement of teaching philosophy, unofficial undergraduate and graduate transcripts (official transcripts required before appointment), and contact information including e-mail addresses for three professional references. Final selection will be based on excellence in scholastic achievement, professional activity, a review of the candidate’s vita and a successful interview. A teaching demonstration and portfolio review might be requested. For confidential reference letters submissions and transcripts through an agency, institution and/or an individual please mail directly to ehall8@esu.edu or to the Faculty Search and Recruitment Coordinator at East Stroudsburg University, PO Box 447, East Stroudsburg, PA 18301. All candidates must provide proof of eligibility to work in the United States and official transcripts at the time of employment. Offers of employment are contingent upon successful completion of a background check.

The University encourages applications from members of historically under-represented groups, including women, veterans, and persons with disabilities, and is an AA/EEO employer. East Stroudsburg University is interested in hiring employees who have extensive experience with diverse populations. To learn more about diversity at ESU and in our community, visit our website at www.esu.edu/about/offices/diversity_equal_opportunity/index.cfm.