

RESTAURANT MANAGEMENT INSTRUCTOR

School of Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism Management

The School of Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism Management (HRTM) in the College of Hospitality, Retail and Sport Management (HRSM) is seeking a highly motivated Foodservice Management professional at the level of Instructor to teach undergraduate courses in Restaurant and Food Production Management. The successful candidate is expected to have a passion for culinary art, broad-based knowledge of all aspects of hot and cold food preparation, a proven record of teaching/training others, event coordination, front of house management, and a strong record of excellence in quality foodservice.

Built in 1813, the McCutchen House is a student-operated dining facility, located on the historic Horseshoe of the University of South Carolina, where HRTM students learn management and culinary preparation skills through the set up and service of a gourmet bistro lunch and dinner, which is open to the public during the fall, spring and summer semesters. The McCutchen House also offers services for private or professional events.

Additional duties associated with this 9-month, full-time appointment, subject to renewal, include, but are not limited to:

- Teach four (4) academic, undergraduate courses in restaurant management/front-of-house operations (HRTM 370) per fall and spring semester; develop course syllabi
- Work with the General Manager to coordinate operations for lunch service
- Work with General Manager to maintain accurate program budget records
- Collaborate with facility faculty and staff to service special events
- Maintain foodservice and production methods that follow federal, state and local standards, guidelines and regulations that govern all foodservice facilities
- Ensure efficient, safe, accountable, and sanitary kitchen practices
- Remain current with industry trends and
- Other duties as necessary as assigned by the Director of the School of HRTM

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Master's degree and two (2) years front-of-house management experience in a full-service restaurant/foodservice environment.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

Master's degree in Hospitality Management or Master's degree in related field with a minimum of 18 graduate hours in Hospitality or Management. Five (5) years of front house management experience in a full-service restaurant/food service environment. Experience with budget/finance, food costing, and menu development.

The review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. The desired start date for the position is August 16, 2019. The required application documents for consideration include:

1. Cover Letter
2. Curriculum Vitae
3. List of References and Contact Information

To submit application materials for posting #FAC00042PO19, please visit <https://uscjobs.sc.edu/postings/56826>.

For additional information, contact:

Jessica Chavis, MHRTM, Search Committee Chair

Email: chavisjp@mailbox.sc.edu

Office: (803) 777-5054

The School serves over 700 majors, 400 minors, and has thriving Master's and Ph.D. programs. HRTM employs 25 faculty and staff members, and boasts 5 research centers. The College of Hospitality, Retail and Sport Management is in the final stages of relocating to a new home that will feature a new demonstration culinary lab, made possible through an industry partnership and gift from the Marriott Family Foundation.

Founded in 1801, the University of South Carolina (USC) is the flagship campus of an eight-campus, fully accredited, state system. USC Columbia has a student population of over 34,000, and offers excellent curricular community engagement. Information about the School of Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism Management and the College of Hospitality, Retail and Sport Management is available on the USC website, sc.edu/hrsm.

The City of Columbia is the state capital and the largest city in South Carolina, with a metropolitan area population of over 800,000. Columbia is the State's center of financial, transportation, and industrial development, and has a rich historical and cultural tradition. The City is located within easy driving distance of both mountains and coast.

Hospitality/tourism is the leading industry in the state of South Carolina, offering exceptional opportunities for industry partnerships, as well as continued growth and innovative development in all aspects of HRTM. With internationally known destinations such as Charleston, Greenville, Hilton Head Island, Kiawah Island, and Myrtle Beach, the hospitality industry contributes significantly to South Carolina's economy.

The University of South Carolina does not discriminate in educational or employment opportunities on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender, age, disability, veteran status or genetics.