

Sol International School

Introduction:

Sol International School (SIS) was created in 2014 in Daejeon, South Korea, as a result of Woosong University's "Global Initiative" to fulfill global educational needs. SIS offers English-instructed specialized international programs, many of which are in the hospitality industry.

We are currently hiring professors with the following backgrounds for Fall 2019:

Main Focus (Culinary Arts): Classical French/European cuisine, western culinary techniques, introduction to various styles of food preparation, food service, safety, sanitation, butchery and meat fabrication, garde manger, restaurant operations and F&B/kitchen management.

Main Focus (Baking & Pastry): Classical French patisserie, traditional European cakes, pastries, creams, tarts, ice creams, viennoiserie, chocolates, plated desserts, basic doughs, basic breads, optional: artisan yeast/sour dough breads, décor work and show piece production.

Restaurant Entrepreneurship Focus: Restaurant Management, Hall Service, Staff Management, Accounting and Financing, F&B Management, Inventory and Purchase Management, Operation Management, Restaurant Marketing, Franchise/Chain Management, Restaurant Concept Development, Business Planning, Market Intelligence, Process of opening a restaurant, etc.

Hospitality Focus: Hospitality Management, Human Resources, Hotel Software (PMS/Opera), Food & Beverage Management, Hospitality Sales & Marketing, Events/MICE, Managerial Accounting in Hospitality, etc.

Requirements:

- Associate's degree or Bachelor's degree for culinary and baking/pastry with extensive work experience in relevant areas
- Ph.D. for others with extensive work experience in relevant areas
- Training experience and/or teaching experience at the university level (preferred)

- Ability to teach in English

Job Responsibilities:

- Professors are required to teach (i.e., contact hours) a maximum of 20 hours per week. The remaining work hours will be devoted to administrative work, which may include advising students, attending departmental and campus-wide events, attending meetings, class preparation, grading exams/assignments, etc.

Job Benefits:

- Competitive salary commensurate with qualifications and experience
- Semi-furnished housing
- One-way airfare upon arrival; one-way airfare upon departure
- Pension fund
- Korean National health insurance
- Performance-based Bonus
- 4 weeks of paid vacation (20 working days) and national holidays

Contract renewal is possible with satisfactory performance.

Please send your complete resume inclusive of detailed track record, employment history, cover letter, photograph and certificates/references to:

Global Center HR
Woosong University
Daejeon/South Korea
Email : globalcenterhr@woosong.org