

Position	Associate Professor of Hospitality Management & Chair, Department of Hospitality Management and Culinary Arts (Tenure-Track Position, 12 Months)
Division:	Business Administration
Department:	Hospitality Management and Culinary Arts
Reports to:	Dean, Division of Business
Position Summary	A faculty member at Livingstone College has the primary function of teaching, assessing student performance, and continuous improvement of programs. Secondary functions include professional development and scholarly activities, mentoring, advising students; and service to the College and profession. This position requires a Ph.D., or equivalent in Hospitality Management. The successful candidate must be available to begin 02 January 2018.
Essential Duties & Responsibilities The results you will deliver each day that matter most!	Essential Duties and Responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide leadership, creativity, and practical core knowledge and skills required for hospitality professionals in the twenty-first century • Exhibit a commitment to excellence in teaching and learning and the ability to work cooperatively with faculty, staff and administration • Use technology platforms and assistive technology to enhance student learning • Support the Livingstone College Holistic philosophy through commitment to success of students with diverse goals, backgrounds and learning styles • Instruct students in accordance with college policies, procedures and curriculum approved by the Department • Use out-of-class duty hours for class preparation, advising, mentoring, assisting students and participating in department/college activities • Serve the College through any of the following: (a) committee membership, (b) curriculum development, (c) development of innovative instruction, (d) sponsorship of student organizations, (e) representation of the College in professionally related community activities, and (f) special projects. • Support College extracurricular functions • Maintain currency through professional development and scholarly activities • Demonstrate a professional, cooperative and considerate attitude toward students, colleagues and staff • Perform other duties as assigned
Education/ Experience What you will need to be successful!	Required: The Ph.D. in Hospitality Management from a regionally accredited university. Significant industry and prior teaching/leadership experience also required. Applicant should have a record of scholarly publications and industry engagement. Other skills and abilities include strong written and oral communication skills; working knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel, Publisher and PowerPoint, and familiarity with learning platforms used in higher education.
Life at Livingstone College	Livingstone College is a private, four year liberal arts institution founded in 1879 by the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. Secured by a strong commitment to quality instruction, the College offers excellent liberal arts and religious education programs for students designed to develop their potential for leadership and service to a global community.

About Livingstone College: <http://Livingstone.edu> Livingstone College is an equal opportunity employer that employs qualified individuals based upon job related qualifications regardless of race, religion, ancestry, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, marital status, domestic partner status, medical condition, political affiliation or any other classification proscribed under applicable federal, state or local law. Livingstone College complies with all laws regarding reasonable accommodation for disabled candidates and employees. Applicants requiring reasonable accommodation in order to participate in the interview process are requested to contact Human Resources in order to arrange such accommodation. We offer competitive compensation and an attractive benefits package. No recruiters or agencies without a previously signed contract.

Apply here: <https://home.eease.adp.com/recruit2/?id=15639141&t=1>