Founding Program Director for the Hospitality Degree Program
Clinical Associate Professor or Clinical Professor of Hospitality
Michael A. Leven School of Management, Entrepreneurship and Hospitality

Kennesaw State University is now accepting applications for a twelve-month, non-tenure track Clinical Associate Professor or Clinical Professor of Hospitality faculty position in the Michael A. Leven School of Management, Entrepreneurship and Hospitality which begins July 2020.

Position Qualifications - Responsibilities:
The Hospitality program director will hold a clinical faculty appointment in the Michael A. Leven School of Management, Entrepreneurship and Hospitality (at the Associate or Full Professor level). The director should be able to cover multiple responsibilities in the initial stages of launching the new program.
• Will work closely with the Michael A. Leven Endowed Chair in Hospitality and the leadership of the Michael A. Leven School of Management, Entrepreneurship and Hospitality and the Coles College of Business to pursue strategic objectives for the program.
• Lead the design, development, administration and continuous improvement of the new program.
• Recruit, coach and mentor students for the Hospitality degree program.
• Engage with hospitality industry practitioners, organizations and other external stakeholders to secure support and sponsorship for the program.
• Facilitate internships and job placement opportunities for students in the program.
• Engage with complementary centers/programs across and beyond the university.

Required Education - Experience - Skills (Minimum Qualifications):
• Candidates must have earned a terminal degree in hospitality, business administration, leadership, or related hospitality/administration/leadership field or foreign equivalent.
• Significant industry experience in hospitality.
• Demonstrated administrative skills including strategic planning, curriculum development and budgeting
• A proven record of teaching in hospitality.
• Ability to interact effectively with diverse stakeholders (e.g., faculty, students, staff, alumni, community), including developing industry relationships
• Track record of developing community and industry relationships.
• Research record commensurate with accreditation qualifications and some experience in meeting accreditation standards.

Preferred Experience:
• Experience in developing hospitality programs in higher education.
• Some evidence of fund-raising abilities.
For more than 50 years, Kennesaw State University has been known for its entrepreneurial spirit and sense of community. Offering campuses in Marietta and Kennesaw, the university is located just north of Atlanta and combines a suburban setting with access to one of the country's most dynamic cities. As Georgia's third-largest university, Kennesaw State offers more than 100 undergraduate and graduate degrees, including a growing number of doctoral programs. Designated by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia as a comprehensive university, Kennesaw State is committed to becoming a world-class academic institution positioned to broaden its academic and research missions and expand its scope on a local, regional and national level.

For a full description of this position, application deadlines, and application procedures, visit https://facultyjobs.kennesaw.edu.

Kennesaw State University, a member of the University System of Georgia, is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, and/or veteran status. Georgia is an Open Records state.