

Position Announcement
Department of Hospitality Management
University of Missouri

Position Title: Assistant Teaching Professor in Hospitality Management

Position Description: The Hospitality Management (HM) Program at the University of Missouri invites applications for a faculty position for Assistant Teaching Professor in Hospitality Management, preferably in the areas of lodging management and/or food and beverage management.

Responsibilities for the position is as follows: Teaching courses in lodging Management, food & beverage management and other hospitality management core courses; recruiting & advising undergraduate students; increasing visibility of the program, and developing internship opportunities and building industry relationship. Research activities are encouraged. The position is benefit-eligible, professional (non-tenure) track, academic appointment, and salary commensurate with qualifications.

The Hospitality Management Program, with 470+ students, is one of the largest programs in the College of Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources with professional tracks in Food & Beverage Management, Lodging Management, and Conference & Event Management and Sport Venue Management. Our program also offers Masters and Ph.D. degree programs (for details, please visit the website: <http://hospitality.missouri.edu>). The MU campus, with approximately 35,000 students, is in a beautiful university town of 100,000, and Columbia offers many amenities including outstanding public schools, great health care facilities, clean environment, rich recreational and cultural activities, and easy access to St. Louis and Kansas City.

Qualifications: Applicants must have a combination of education and professional experience in hospitality management, particularly in lodging management, or related business field. Terminal degree at time of appointment is preferred, however applicants with substantial prior experience will also be considered. Prior college teaching and curriculum development experience is desired and willingness to work as a team is a must.

Application Process: Electronic submissions are required via: <http://hrs.missouri.edu/find-a-job/academic/index.php>. Be prepared to submit a letter of application, curriculum vita, and statement of teaching philosophy with the application. In addition three letters of recommendation must be submitted by email to carmichael@missouri.edu or by mail. Transcripts from all universities should be directed to:

Search Committee Chair
Hospitality Management
122 Eckles Hall
University of Missouri-Columbia
Columbia, MO 65211

Candidate screening begins immediately. Applications will be accepted until a suitable candidate is selected. The successful candidate is expected to join the faculty for the spring semester 2018.

MU specifically invites and encourages applications from qualified women and members of groups underrepresented in science. Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action/ADA employer firmly committed to fostering ethnic, racial, and gender diversity in our faculty.

September 2017