

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor Position in Tourism Management

Department of Recreation, Sport and Tourism

College of Applied Health Sciences

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Position: The Department of Recreation, Sport and Tourism at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign invites applications for an Assistant Professor, nine-month, tenure-track position in the area of Tourism Management. We are seeking candidates with a strong, well-defined research agenda with the ability to teach core subjects in tourism management. This position builds on the department's interdisciplinary strengths to integrate recreation, sport and tourism and offers opportunities to engage in interdisciplinary scholarship within the department as well as other units within the College of Applied Health Sciences and across campus. The start date for this position will be August 16, 2019.

Responsibilities: Responsibilities include conducting research in chosen area of expertise; building collaborative research partnerships with colleagues within the department, college and various disciplines across campus; advising and directing student research including M.S. theses and Ph.D. dissertations; instructing undergraduate and graduate courses; contributing to the Department's curriculum; seeking external funding for research efforts; serving on Department, College, and University committees; and engaging in professional and public service activities.

Required Qualifications: To qualify for the position, applicants must demonstrate the following minimum qualifications:

- Earned doctorate in Tourism or related field at the time of appointment. ABD will be considered but the hire will be contingent upon completing the degree prior to the position's start date.
- Evidence of publishing in leading peer-reviewed journals in the tourism field.
- Evidence of or potential to attract external funding.
- Ability to contribute to RST undergraduate and graduate curricula in one or more of the following areas: management, technology, consumer behavior, and marketing.
- Ability to contribute to the university and the Recreation, Sport and Tourism field through academic and public service/engagement.

Preferred qualifications: Preference will be given to applicants who:

- Make linkages among tourism, recreation, and sport
- Have practical experience within the tourism industry

Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Application Deadline: For full consideration, please submit all required materials by October 1, 2018. Screening of candidates will continue until the position is filled.

Application Procedure: To apply, please create your candidate profile at <https://jobs.illinois.edu> and upload the following:

- Letter of application, including a statement of your research interests and teaching background
- Curriculum vitae
- List of three (3) references including their names, addresses, email addresses, and phone numbers

All requested information must be submitted for your application to be considered. For additional information regarding the position contact the Search Committee Chair, Dr. Joy Huang at (217) 244-9716 or at joyhuang@illinois.edu.

The RST Department: Faculty and staff of the Department of Recreation, Sport and Tourism (RST) at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign work to advance knowledge to foster healthy lifestyles, environmental stewardship and sustainability, effective management and marketing of organizations, and social and economic development of communities (see www.rst.illinois.edu for additional information). The RST department offers residential B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. programs, and online M.S. program, and houses the Office of Park and Recreation Resources with a mission to build partnerships for healthy communities. The RST department is housed in the College of Applied Health Sciences at UIUC.

The AHS College: The RST Department is part of the College of Applied Health Sciences (see <http://ahs.illinois.edu>) and affiliated with the Center for Health, Aging, and Disability (see <http://chad.illinois.edu>). The College houses the Division of Disability Resources and Educational Services (<http://www.disability.illinois.edu>) (DRES) which includes the US Paralympic Training Site for Wheelchair Track and Road Racing. The College also houses the Center for Wounded Veterans in Higher Education (<http://woundedvetcenter.ahs.illinois.edu>) which opened in 2015 to provide support services to empower student veterans with disabilities.

The Community: Urbana-Champaign (located 120 miles south of Chicago) combines natural Midwestern beauty with the cultural resources typically found in larger metropolitan areas. Downtown areas provide vibrant public spaces with unique dining and entertainment options and the local community offers a thriving arts and culture atmosphere as well as varsity and community sports. Outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy 80 parks within the two communities with easy access to three major forest preserves in Champaign County (see www.visitchampaigncounty.org for additional information).

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor Position in Event Management

Department of Recreation, Sport and Tourism

College of Applied Health Sciences

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Position: The Department of Recreation, Sport and Tourism at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign invites applications for an Assistant Professor – Event Management, nine-month, tenure-track position. We are seeking candidates with a strong, well-defined research agenda in event management with the ability to teach event management courses and other core subjects. This position builds on the department's interdisciplinary strengths to integrate recreation, sport and tourism and offers opportunities to engage in interdisciplinary scholarship within the department as well as other units within the College of Applied Health Sciences and across campus. The start date for this position will be August 16, 2019.

Responsibilities: Responsibilities include conducting research in aspects of event management; building collaborative research partnerships with colleagues within the department, college and various disciplines across campus; advising and directing student research including theses and dissertations; instructing undergraduate and graduate courses; contributing to the Department's curriculum; seeking external funding for research efforts; serving on Department, College, and University committees; and engaging in professional and public service activities.

Qualifications: To qualify for the position, applicants must demonstrate the following minimum qualifications:

- Earned doctorate in an affiliated field at the time of appointment (although applicants with an ABD status will be considered, the hire would be contingent upon completing the degree prior to the position's start date).
- Evidence of or potential to publish in top tier peer-reviewed journals.
- Evidence of or potential to attract external funding.
- Ability to teach undergraduate and graduate courses within the RST department, including in event management, while demonstrating ability to make linkages among recreation, sport and tourism.
- Ability to contribute to the university and the Recreation, Sport and Tourism field through academic and public service/engagement.

The Department: Faculty and staff of the Department of Recreation, Sport and Tourism (RST) at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign work to advance knowledge to foster healthy lifestyles, environmental stewardship and sustainability, effective management and marketing of organizations, and social and economic development of communities (see www.rst.illinois.edu for additional information). The Department offers residential B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. programs, an online M.S. program, and houses the Office of Park and Recreation Resources with a mission to build partnerships for healthy communities.

The College: The RST Department is part of the College of Applied Health Sciences (see <http://ahs.illinois.edu>) and affiliated with the Center for Health, Aging, and Disability (see <http://chad.illinois.edu>). The College houses the Division of Disability Resources and Educational Services (<http://www.disability.illinois.edu>) (DRES) which includes the US Paralympic Training Site for Wheelchair Track and Road Racing. The College also houses the Center for Wounded Veterans in Higher Education (<http://woundedvetcenter.ahs.illinois.edu>) which opened in 2015 to provide support services to empower student veterans with disabilities.

The Community: Urbana-Champaign (located 120 miles south of Chicago) combines natural Midwestern beauty with the cultural resources typically found in larger metropolitan areas. Downtown areas provide vibrant public spaces with unique dining and entertainment options and the local community offers a thriving arts and culture atmosphere as well as varsity and community sports. Outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy 80 parks within the two communities with easy access to three major forest preserves in Champaign County (see www.visitchampaigncounty.org for additional information).

Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Application procedure: Screening of candidates will begin on October 5th, 2018 and will continue until the position is filled. To apply please create your candidate profile at <https://jobs.illinois.edu> and upload your letter of application that includes a statement of your research interests, curriculum vitae, and names, addresses, and phone numbers of three references. All requested information must be submitted for your application to be considered. For additional information regarding the position please contact the Search Committee Chair, Jon Welty Peachey at (217) 244-2956 or at jwpeach@illinois.edu.

The University of Illinois conducts criminal background checks on all job candidates upon acceptance of contingent offer.

*Illinois is an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age, status as a protected veteran, or status as a qualified individual with a disability. Illinois welcomes individuals with diverse backgrounds, experiences, and ideas who embrace and value diversity and inclusivity.
(www.inclusiveillinois.illinois.edu).*