

Faculty Opening

Boston University invites applications for one faculty position in the School of Hospitality Administration (SHA). We are seeking a faculty member with an expertise in Service Operations Management and/or Hospitality Data Analytics. This is a non-tenure track position with the academic rank of Assistant Professor.

Qualifications: Candidates should have an earned doctoral degree in Hospitality Management, Operations Research, Industrial Engineering, Supply Chain Management, Quantitative Marketing, Data Science or a closely related business field.

Expectations: Successful candidates will teach and develop undergraduate and graduate courses with an emphasis on Service Operations Management and/or Hospitality Data Analytics. The new colleague will have to contribute to our research mission and produce high quality peer-reviewed scholarly papers. The ability to successfully compete for grant funding is essential. Preference will be given to those with demonstrated interest in hospitality or with work experience in hospitality.

School Profile: The School of Hospitality Administration at Boston University is a specialized business program focused on the hospitality sector, especially the hotel and restaurant industries, with a solid liberal arts foundation, with approximately 300 students enrolled. SHA is part of a major research university, located in a cosmopolitan city with world-class academic institutions and a vibrant hospitality sector.
